

What exactly is enrollment?

Enrolling means getting your legal status as a student in Germany. Your TUMonline account switches from applicant to student features.

Only enrolled students have access and are entitled to:

Course and exam registration

Documents such as enrollment certificate

(→ Bavaria: discounted train ticket)

Moodle and further student infrastructure

Student card (only with a German address)

Health Insurance: Digital Notification Process I

You are insured by a German public health insurance company Enter your details in TUMonline (Company name, health insurance number).

Contact the German public health insurance company for a digital notification.

Ask them to submit a digital notification of your insurance status to TUM. (TUM recipient number: H0001558)

No certificates are required – only the digital notification.

Health Insurance: Digital Notification Process II

You are insured by a private health insurance company Select in TUMonline that you are privately insured.

Contact a German public health insurance company (e.g. AOK, TK) for a digital notification.

They will check your private health insurance (whether it is valid for studies in Germany) and will send a digital notification to TUM that you are exempt from German mandatory health insurance.

Health Insurance: Digital Notification Process III

You are insured in your home country and the insurance is accepted in Germany

Both EU/non-EU insurance (Turkey, Switzerland, Tunisia, et. al.)

Contact a German public health insurance company

(e.g. AOK, TK) for a digital notification.

They will check your foreign health insurance (whether it is valid for studies in Germany) and will send a digital notification to TUM that you are exempt from German mandatory health insurance.

Health Insurance: Digital Notification Process IV

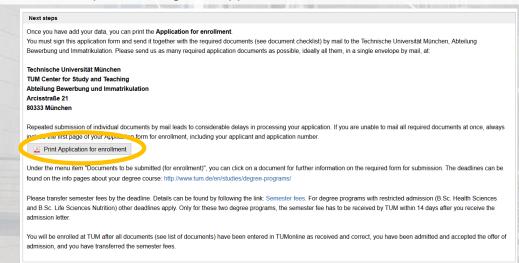

- Enrollment can only be completed after TUM received a valid digital health insurance notification.
- Until it has been received, you will see a suspension ("Rückmeldesperre") in your account.
- Every active suspension is visible in your TUMonline account right after logging-in.
- The suspension will be lifted when the digital notification of your health insurance is processed.
- The digital notification is processed within a few days (up to a week).
- If you have inserted incorrect data about your health insurance during the enrollment process
 - → the input will be overwritten by correct data after TUM received the digital notification.
